OPINION AND ORDER

Lonnie D. Williams, a pro se prisoner, filed a motion seeking additional time to pay the $255.00 appellate filing fee. Mr. Williams doesn't specify how much time he wants nor how he believes that he will obtain these monies if given additional time. This request is insufficient to justify extending the deadline for paying the appellate filing fee, especially in this case where the court has already determined that Mr. William's claims have no merit and that his appeal is not taken in good faith. For the foregoing reasons, the court DENIES the motion to enlarge time (docket # 16), and REMINDS the plaintiff that if he does not pay the $255.00 appellate filing fee on or before May 17, 2005, that his appeal may be dismissed without further notice without affecting his obligation to pay the filing fee. SO ORDERED.
